

In the midst of our trials,

God gives us something beautiful to think about.

Surrounded by His earthly creation, God Incarnate lay in a manger;

There was no room at the Inn.

Crucified without the city gate, the veil of His flesh rent,

Jesus opened access to the Holy of Holies.

Having lain in a tomb, now empty, Resurrection power raising to Life,

We find God's love raising us as we go to Jesus outside the camp,

Bearing His reproach, seeking the City to come.

In the beauties of holiness,

We find Him, the Holy Spirit,

Comforting us and wrapping God's love around us.

We are not as those who have no hope.

Out of God's love flows His grace.

Out of His grace flows Christ's Life.

May you be filled with the knowledge of that Blessed Hope

And the Peace that passes all understanding.
